

Day of Salvation - Forgiven & Set Free

I come to You today Jesus, to declare that I believe in You and what you have done for me. You died on the cross and were buried and on the third day you rose again. You defeated death and now I can find new life in You. I have the forgiveness of sins that formerly condemned me, and now I am counted as a Child of God! I understand that I no longer am a slave to sin, and that I must turn from sin so I may walk and live right with You. I confess that I don't know how to do this, but that I will commit from this time on, in learning how. I will commit to you learning more about who you are, and what you have done and who I am now – that I will forsake my old life and have new life in You. I desire for Your Spirit to come into me, to teach me all that I need to know, to help me to love and to die to my own self. I ask that I be protected in this time, because I know so very little, and that you would keep me from the evil one and lead me away from temptation that will take me away from you. I repent of all my sin, I forgive all who have done me wrong and today, I live a new life free from all of this! Thank you for setting me free! I submit to you so you may show me how to live and walk in my newly found freedom. Please give to me good teaching and teachers, and godly friends who may help me along the way. Protect me from false teaching and teachers – and every false way. Jesus you are my Lord and my Savior – have your way in me. Amen.

I pray that the heavens shall be opened and release upon us God's grace, favor, youth and strength, joy and peace and His mercy. I ask that He pour out upon us steps that He has ordered – and Angels who will be assigned to help us walk in which the Lord wills us. I ask that we be a people who would love God with all our heart, mind and soul – in His strength, power and purpose. That we not be bound in fear, but instead be of courage and confidence that He is for us. I ask that we be walking testimony of the Power of God – so the lost and dying world may see His proof.

I ask this in the Mighty name of Jesus – Amen!
